ELLINWOOD

EAGLES

The Young Ones, Flip Side

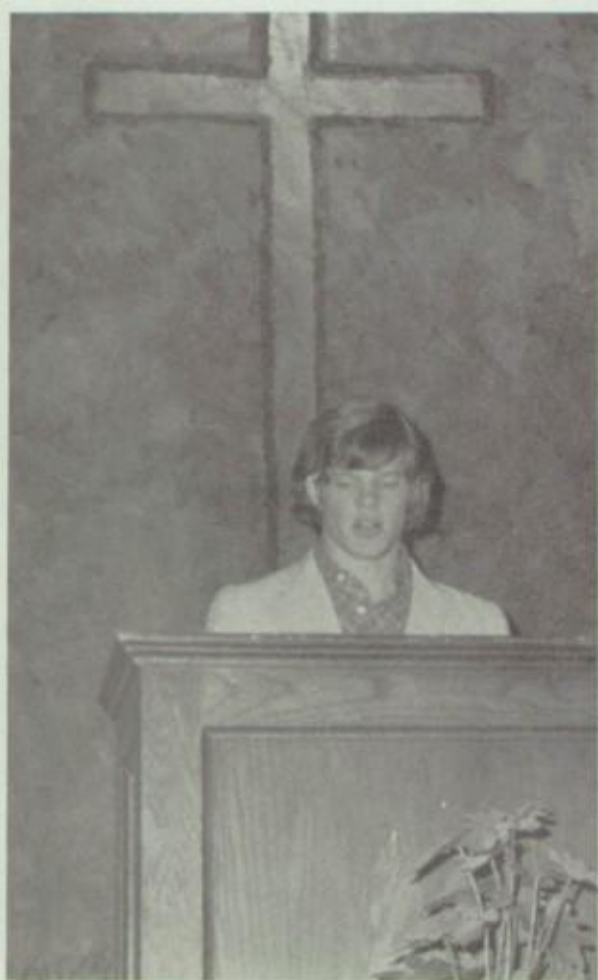

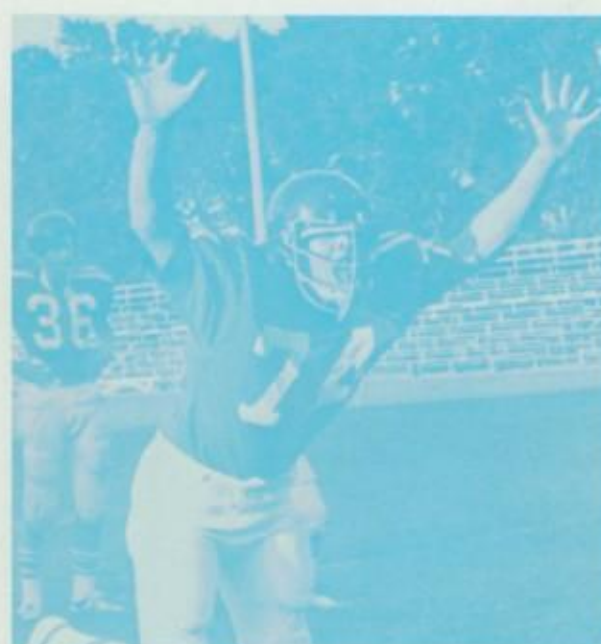

In tight pants, tight skirts,
 stretched or squeezed,
 youth hurts.
 Crammed in, bursting out,
 Flesh will sing
 And hide its doubt
 In nervous hips, hopping glance,
 Usurping rouge,
 Provoking stance.

Put off, or put on,
 Youth hurts. And then
 It's gone.

LIBRARY PAGES

Pages help library run smoothly

Library pages are members of the KLASS (Kansas Library Assistants Secondary Schools). They had an annual convention last spring at Salina. Mr. Reginald Buxton instructed the pages on the basic information used to set up a library. Among other duties they helped at the circulation desk, put books away, took fines, and delivered mail to the teachers. They learned how to use the library themselves and to help other people use the library efficiently.

AFS AND FES

Exchange students encounter new life

AFS, the American Field Service program, had a welcoming party for Anu Ojapelto from Finland in the fall at the Lutheran Youth Center. Also they had an AFS Potpourri Night, a welcome back dinner for Judi Bartels our AFS abroad student who spent a year in Argentina, an AFS school assembly, and a farewell party for the AFS students.

Another student, Juliania Callejas from Mexico, attended EHS through International Fellowship Program Inc., which AFS helps sponsor.

Anu lived with the Tom Hedges family and Juliana spent January thru June with the Raymond Fertig family. From February 1973 to January 1974, Judi lived in Argentina with the Albors family.

Language classes try new techniques

A new type of Latin course appeared this year at EHS. First year Latin's text was written completely in Latin. The class answered the questions in Latin. Second year students studied Caesar and third and fourth year students studied Ovid, Virgil, and the Illiad. They also learned to speak and read the language.

Spanish is the other foreign language in EHS. A language day was held February 26, 1974, at Bethany College in Lindsborg. In the Spanish classes, they learn to speak and read this language by using text books and tapes.

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Classes study historical aspects

A series of mock trials were included in World History classes this year. American government students learned about Race Relations through a type of study and points system. They also learned about current events in government.

American History classes studied the basics of the American heritage and the United States history. Constitution classes were especially interested in using the U.S. NEWS AND WORLD REPORT magazine for recent events to read and study about. They also learned the different departments of the government.

ENGLISH AND JOURNALISM

Students study essays, novels, poetry

English III and IV are taught by Mrs. Nancy Converse. English III studied novels and improved their writing by the use of composition instructions. English IV studied such periods of literature as medieval and modern. They were also very busy writing and rewriting essays and theme papers.

Mr. Mike Westerman taught the English I and Basic English. This class studied poetry, novels, and other famous types of literature.

Mrs. Mary Anne Siefkes was new here this year. English II studied about newspapers and the library. They also did research papers on their career choices.

Mrs. Siefkes also was the journalism teacher and yearbook advisor. The size of the annual was changed from a 9 × 12 to an 8½ × 11. Four journalism students went to the High Plains Journalism Camp at Hays and placed first in the Class 2A division for yearbook design.

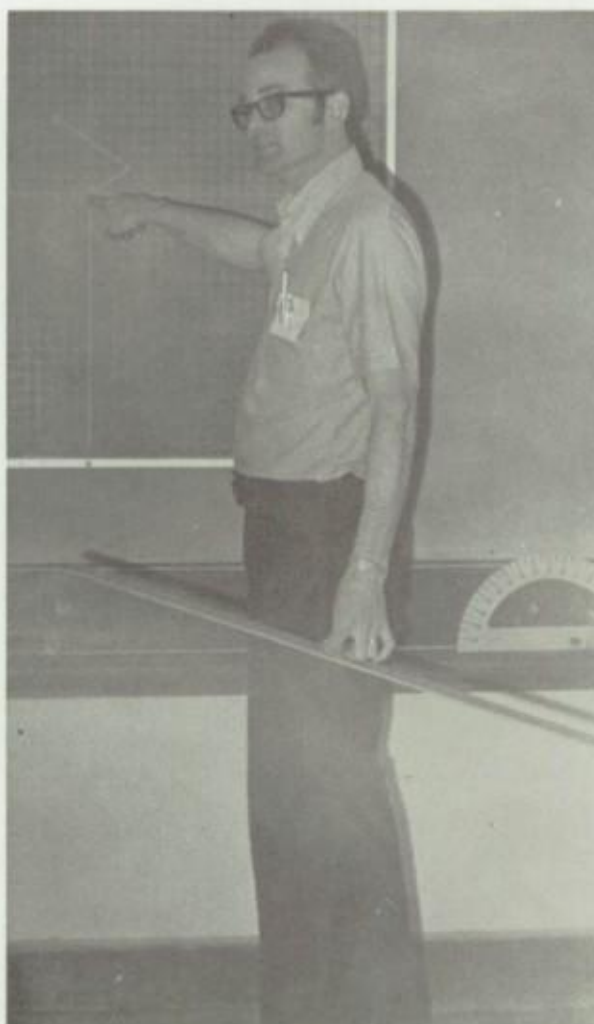

Jackie Bowman, Beverly Outten, and Andy Wise placed in the regional KOPA contest.

Students journey forward in math

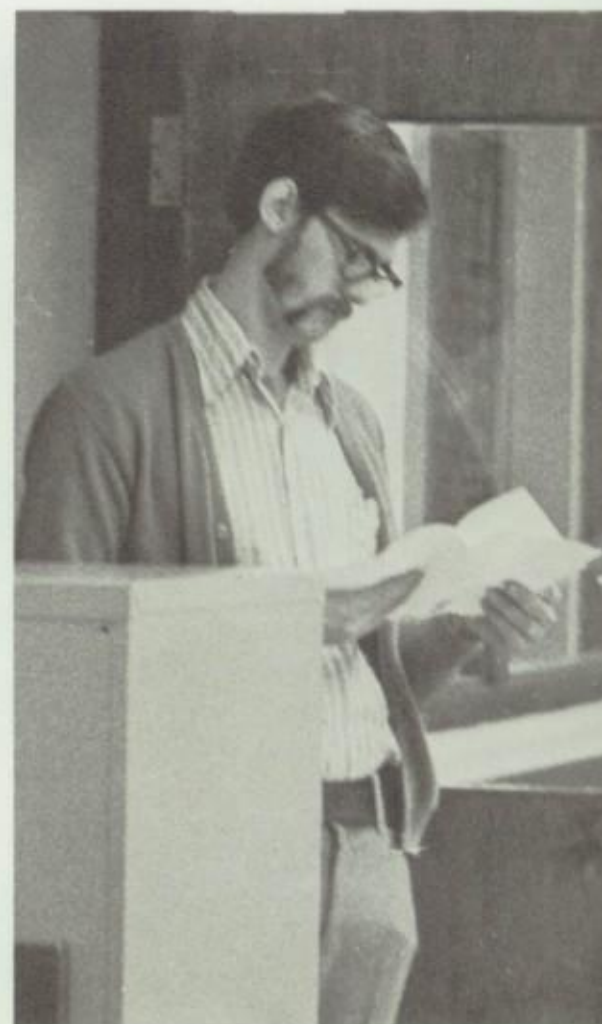

Geometry students studied points, lines, geometric figures and their relationships in space. Algebra II students continue into the study of fractional and negative, irrational and imaginary numbers, plus systems of equations. Advanced math studies more advanced types of Algebra and Trigonometry.

General math places emphasis on the development of the fundamentals of mathematics and usable skills. Algebra I students learn to solve problems with a combination of solutions.

MUSIC

New uniforms highlight active band year

Uniforms and a bass guitar were new equipment purchased for the band this year. The band performed half time shows at the football games and provided entertainment at the basketball games by playing some of their favorite tunes. They also sponsored the CPL Music Festival, March 22.

The stage band performed in the Central States Jazz Festival in Manhattan on February 16. Gary Foster, a Hollywood woodwind artist, was one of the judges at the festival and Bill Chase, a well known clinician in the field of jazz performed for all the schools that participated in the festival. Steve Fisher and Paul Banman were selected from all the schools that took part in the festival, to play in an All Star Band.

Other activities that the stage band helped with this year was providing music for Homecoming and the Potpourri for AFS.

JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

Junior-Senior Prom highlights year

"The Show Must Go On" was the theme for the 1974 Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Juniors, with help from sponsors Edgar Sturtz and Bill Korinek, decorated the gym with clown murals, circus posters and a circus wagon which served as the center piece.

Balloons hung from the ceiling and the banquet tables were decorated with clowns and circus animals.

Cindy Staab, president of the junior class, gave the welcome as the Master of Ceremonies. The response was given by Tim Klepper, president of the senior class. Rev. M. D. Wolff, speaker for the evening, spoke on the theme "The Show Must Go On."

During the banquet circus music was provided from the circus wagon. After the banquet "Joint Session" from Lawrence, Kansas, played for the Prom Dance.

FOOTBALL

Eagles CPL, district champs

Ellinwood Eagle Football squad under head coach Jim Lambert chalked up a nine win, no loss record during regular season play. The Eagles, by their efforts, gained their fourth consecutive Central Prairie League Championship and entered post season play.

Ellinwood defeated the Wakeeney Golden Eagles to capture the District Championship 24-13. The team met their first defeat at the hands of the Moundridge Wildcats 14-48 in Regional play.

Two members of the Eagle squad were elected All-State Teams. Bob Rader, quarterback, was chosen by the Salina paper to their All-2A State Team. Stan Ploutz, split receiver, was elected to the All-Class 2A team, the All-America Team, and was also chosen to play in the Shrine Game at Kansas University.

c▼

All through the years,
we have rebelliously and deliberately fought
in our pride.
Now the time is at hand
when we have to look back
at the many new faces
who undoubtedly lack the courage and wisdom
which has taken eighteen years of our lives to achieve.

Wisdom
we know now
is not won through books alone
but through teachers and schools
such as E.H.S.

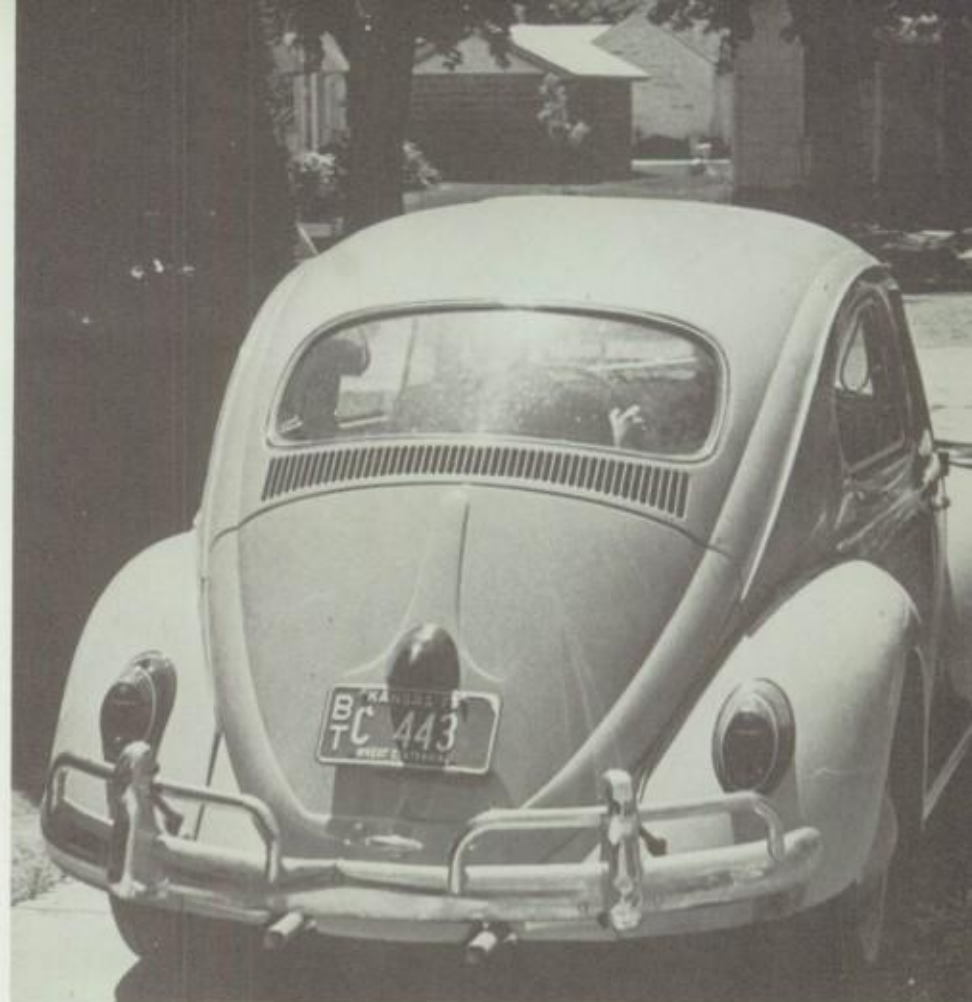

Terry Don Arnold
